PALMER SAYS REVOLT WAS CHECKED HERE

Washington, Feb. 4.—A vigorous enforcement of "such laws as we have" has prevented a "general and widespread outbreak of revolutionary sentiment" in this country, Attorney-General Palmer told the House Judiciary Committee today. "Red uprisings," he said for last June, deferred until September and again postponed, have been checked by vigorous action by the attorney-general's office and the Department of Justice, Palmer declared.

ARMY APPROPRIATION TOO SMALL, SAYS BAKER

Washington, Feb. 4.—Adoption of universal military training would not remove the difficulties attending the making and maintaining of a war-time organization in the army today, said Secretary Baker before the House Military Affairs Committee. You cannot make a war-time organization on the authorized peacetime basis and wish to have appropriations allowed," said the Secretary.

LEISNER QUILTS PEACE JOB

Warne of German Revolution if Allies Extradite Military Leaders

Paris, Feb. 4.—Making good his threat to quit if the allies pressed their demand for German state and military officials for trial, Baron von Leisner today announced he had resigned as head of the German peace delegation.

von Leisner refused to transmit to Berlin the list of German officials named by the peace conference, or the "covering note," which accompanied the list. The covering note was returned to the French government by the retiring envoy.

Immediately called upon news of the resignation reached Premier Millerand.

The foreign office has not decided how it will transmit the list of war criminals and the covering note to Germany. Herr Mayer, German chargé d'affaires, is now in Berlin. Officials regard the von Leisner incident as merely an expression of his own feelings. von Leisner said he would resign immediately.

2,226 INFLUENZA SPREADS FAST

State and City Increase Efforts as the Number of Cases Here Doubles

With 2,206 new influenza cases reported today to the State Board of Health, 634 of them in Boston, health authorities redoubled their efforts to check the alarming increase in the epidemic due to the warm wave.

The total for Boston is nearly double that of the preceding twenty-four hours, and figures for the State show an increase of approximately one case.

Deaths reported for Boston are: Influenza, 31; pneumonia, 15. Twenty-seven new cases of pneumonia were reported for this city alone.

TO STERILIZE GLASSES

Health Commissioner William C. Woodward of Boston issued special orders to soda fountain proprietors that all glasses, cups and silverware be sterilized after each using, and a campaign was made of hospitals for additional beds.

Fluoridation for other cities are: Worcester, 116; Somerville, 124; Malden, 113; Cambridge, 124; Pittsfield, 79; Montague, 41; Lowell, 51; Newton, 31; Haverhill, 41; Woburn, 17; Cambridge, 11.

HOSPITAL BARS VISITORS

All visitors were barred from the Waltham hospital on account of the epidemic, although today's report showed only twenty-two new cases against sixty-eight of yesterday.

Boston's eighty-five new cases of influenza in Cambridge, eight of pneumonia were reported; with four deaths from the latter and one from influenza.

The Portsmouth Navy Yard, which has been free from the disease until this week, reports forty-five cases, which include Captain L. H. Adams, industrial manager, and Captain Snyder, his assistant. The medical officer there has asked for more nurses.

Demands $6,000 for Change of Mind

This story of days and dates and a change of mind was told to the legislative committee on agriculture by William Sims, a Saugus farmer, today.

June 25.—A state inspector instructed me to destroy my corn crop because of the corn-borer.

June 26.—I destroyed it.

June 27.—He came back, said he had changed his mind and I needn't destroy it.

Today.—I want $6,000 damages.

Mrs. W. Forbes Morgan, Jr., and Two Children Perish in New York

New York, Feb. 4.—Mrs. W. Forbes Morgan, Jr., wife of a millionaire broker, and her two young daughters, Barbara and Alice, were killed when they were first destroyed their home at No. 52 West Ninth street today.

The victims were trapped on upper floors of their home by smoke and flames.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were said to be living apart.

Firemen found the body of Mrs. Morgan at the head of the stairway on the second floor. One child was found hanging over a bath tub, having apparently been overcome while trying to reach a window in the bathroom, and the other was found huddled on the floor of a nearby room.

Mr. Morgan is a member of the firm of Morgan, Livermore & Co.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Morgan was Edith Livingston Hall, a noted New York society beauty.

U.S. to Quit Spiker Case After Marriage

Fall River, Feb. 4.—The government's interest in Miss Emily Knowles, English "war bride," will cease with her marriage to Guy Spiker, it was announced at Washington today. In the meantime the case is closed for ninety days.

"My mother knew I was not married to Perley Spiker. She knew that I was not coming here to marry him, and when she learned of my family did object to my coming here—but they knew I was not married."

So said Miss Emily Knowles, daughter of Lieutenant Perley Spiker's "war bride" and bride-to-be of Guy Spiker, Perley's brother, at the home of Mrs. William Henry Battersby today, after her marriage to Guy Spiker, Perley Spiker's brother, the father of her child, and Mrs. Perley Spiker.

Miss Battersby, the English woman who took the young English "war bride" and the Spiker-Knowles story into her home, today related very briefly what she knew.

STOCKS

Slump Caused by Crash in the Foreign Exchange and Tight Money Situation

New York, Feb. 4.—Trading in the foreign exchange market was downcast today. The pound sterling dropped to a new low record of $2.24, while the franc and the dollar fell sharply to new low records.

New York, Feb. 4.—The crash in the foreign exchange market and the tight money situation led to a general toppling of values on the stock market today.

Stocks were freely thrown on the market for sale and prices broke violently from one to over sixteen points.

The greatest loss was suffered in General Motors, which dropped 14 1/2 points.

Canadian Pacific fell 1/2 to 11 1/2, the lowest price it has sold for over fifteen years.

Texas Company dropped 10 points and Mexican Petroleum 2 points.

British Turn Back Cotton Shipments

London, Feb. 4.—Importation of cotton was stopped today because of the unprecedented fall in the exchange rate on the English pound. Some cotton shipments were turned back.

The stoppage of imports is the first selling effect of the exchange rate reaching a point where it does not pay traders to import goods, said the Star.

New York, Feb. 4.—The announcement that England would stop importation of cotton because of the depreciation in the value of the pound, led to a general toppling of values on the stock market today.

"ROSE OF CHINA" TUNEFUL OPERA
Exceptional Cast and Pretty Chorus Score Hit at Shubert
By FRED J. MOISAC, Dramatic Editor.

"The Rose of China," a comic opera by Hotten and Wedekind, with music by Arnold Vokacy, is being presented at the Shubert Theatre. The scenery is by Urban and even that wizard of color and imagery never conceived more exquisite stage pictures than the three acts of "The Rose of China."

The place is very exceptionally cast. When you get such clever people as Frank McIntyre, Oscar Chase and Earl Cunningham in one show you can be pretty sure of good entertainment. Hotten and Wedekind have written a very dainty little book, with bright lyrics and lots of such snappy lines as:

"An optimist is a man who still carries a corker."

Apostles of jazz won't think "The Rose of China" is noisy enough, but to me it is a relief from the oppressiveness and disturbance of the average Broadway comedy. It harks back to "San Toy" and the "Follies" in its style and methods. I liked the piece, and I don't mind admitting it.

Jane Richardson, a cunning little girl, with a beautiful voice, plays the Chinese heroine who prefers the thin Oscar Chase to the fat Frank McIntyre. Cecil Cunningham, also with a lovely voice and a lot of pep, plays the American girl who collects the pump but pleases her. Stanley Ridge is a slacker. Chapman from Yale, deserves mention.

The music is delicate and melodious if not exciting. A topical song "On the March of the Futaba" is very funny as delivered by McIntyre and Cunningham.

Mr. Vokacy, the composer, employs Japanese themes and a Japanese atmosphere, but probably he didn't know a Chinese tune. I am sure I don't.

The piece is as charmingly contained as it is ably and cleverly choreographed. It is exceptionally pretty and wholesome looking.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN KILLED ON TRACKS
An unidentified man, aged about 30, was found lying in the yard No. 10, near the North Station, on a train track, last Friday night. He was pronounced dead. The jugs were in oak crates. Sanford Small furnished bail.

Underwear to match every gay blouse you have UNDERWEAR refused to be outdone by top clothes! It watched blouses and frocks getting gay and gayer every month. It insisted on being allowed one or two colors—like lavender and pink.

As soon as woman had these, she wanted more! And Fashion answered her with camisoles of yellow and baby blue, with envelopes Copenhagen and light gray—even pale green!

The new underwear is bewitching! But it's so new a fashion that hardly any of the stores have it; they must wait for it to be made.

But you don't have to wait for the shops! You can have this smart underwear today. For a wonderful new way has been found for you to wash your sober white underthings into butterfly gaily.

You can wash your camisoles any color you wish

Yes, just wash them! That's just what the glittering Twink flakes are made for—to give any shining color you choose, at the same time they launder as perfectly as Lux.

Smart colors and right every time

You're sure of getting really smart colors when you use Twink, for Twink colors were chosen with the help of this country's authorities on color.

And you get these smart colors every time, too—with never a streaky or dingy look—but always clear and beautifully even. And such fast colors you can wash your garment in Lux several times before you Twink it again.

Get Twink today in the smart colors you've been most eager to have. The surprisingly easy directions come with the Twink package—and Twink can't harm anything that water alone won't injure.
